

Research & Development Expense Credit

Rhode Island offers a 22.5% tax credit for increases in qualified research expenses - the highest rate in America. This credit is available to corporations. If the increase above base period expenditures exceeds $111,111, the credit equals 16.9% of the excess. Unused credits may be carried forward for up to seven years.

- RI General Law